EASTER IN THE CHURCHES.

Special Music and Sermons to Mark the Festival of the Resurrection.

Elaborate music and special sermons will mark the celebration of Easter at all the Protestant and Catholic churches Sunday. Following are the programs:

Anglican.
Morning Service.
Prelude—(a) Dawn, Nevin (b) Easter Morning, West; carol, On the Golden, Glowing Morning, Lefebvre; double quartet, As It Began to Dawn, Vincent; offertory, bass solo, The Resurrection Morn, Rodney; double quartet, Now is Christ Risen, West; postlude, Gloria from 12th Mass, Mozart.

Vesper Service.
Prelude—(a) Marche Triumphale, Costa; (b) Andante in D flat, Zitterbart; (c) Spring Song, Thomas; chorus, The Resurrection, Shelley; chorus, Hosanna, Granier; cantata, Death and Life, Shelley; postlude, Hosanna, Wacha.

Baptist.
At the morning service there will be an Easter Sunday school concert with special vocal and instrumental music, the program being a Livingstone commemoration exercise, Rev. W. F. Rowley, the pastor, will sing a brief address. At the evening service at 7 o'clock a cantata, "The Resurrection of Christ," will be sung by the choir, assisted by several soloists. There will be a pastor by Rev. W. F. Rowley, the pastor.

Methodist.
A feature of the special music at the morning service will be solos by Miss Mabel Clinton and Rev. L. M. Flocken. The pastor will preach an Easter sermon. There will be an Easter concert exercise by the Sunday school at the evening service at 7 o'clock.

Triangular Contest for Place of Police Court Judge.
The latest developments in the police court judgeship contest are of interest. Friday an attorney stated that Judge James A. Shea, who presides over the probate court and has been a candidate for judge of the police court, has been consulting his friends relative to the advisability of his withdrawing from the race in view of the fact that he is already judge of the probate court. It is stated Judge Shea has been advised both ways on the matter and that he has his withdrawal under consideration in view of recent developments in the situation. The supporters of Judge Arnold, the present incumbent, feel sanguine of his reappointment. The friends of Attorney Harvey say that they feel the two democratic representatives should stand by him, the democratic aspirant, Representative Bugbee's position in the matter is of special interest. He is the present prosecuting attorney and could not be reappointed unless the judge of the police court is a republican. The office of prosecuting attorney of the police court is a stepping stone to higher honors when the present state's attorney of the county retires and it is known Attorney Bugbee aspires to that appointment.

Suffragists to Get Out Full Vote.
The suffragists will make a strong effort to have a large women's vote at the special town meeting this afternoon and evening, as an answer to the claim of the anti that they do not want to vote on public questions.

NEW LONDON APPROPRIATION.
To Be Boosted by Board of Trade—Would Indirectly Benefit Willimantic.

John E. Brick, a prominent democrat and a member of the Willimantic board of trade, is to request Judge Arnold, president of the board, to call a special meeting for the purpose of passing a resolution asking the legislature to take final favorable action on the $100,000 appropriation for dock and harbor improvements at New London. The suggestion was made to Mr. Brick by Comptroller Dunn, who says the Norwich constituency is to take similar action. Comptroller Dunn believes improved water terminal facilities at New London would benefit Willimantic and he thinks the legislative drive against the appropriation was an effort to get back at Congressman Mahan for his opposition to Cadwell as state highway commissioner. Comptroller Dunn thinks that if the state makes a million dollar appropriation for this purpose the congressman from this district would succeed in getting congress to make a like appropriation for the improvement of dock and harbor facilities at New London.

Women Have a Right to Vote Today.

That there will be a big vote at the special town meeting this (Saturday) afternoon to ratify the $50,000 appropriation for a new school building on the Natchaug site is conceded. The meeting is called at 3 o'clock and a resolution will unquestionably be passed to keep the polls open until 5 or 10 o'clock so that all voters, both women and men, will have an opportunity to cast their ballots. Ex-Attorney General King said Friday there was absolutely no question in his mind as to the legal right of women to vote on this measure and Attorneys Harvey, Capen and Judge Arnold express the same legal opinion. The registrars will undoubtedly appoint the election officers to attend the booths, checking lists, etc., and the women's vote will be cast in a separate box. An attorney stated Friday that a majority might be made by the opponents of the new school building project to secure a moderator at the meeting who would rule out the women's vote. In view of the overwhelming sentiment in favor of the new building, the registrars may allow the meeting to select the moderator. Friends of the project say they will take no chances of defeat and will watch every move from start to finish so that no unauthorized person will be allowed to thwart the will of the people who will be made.

Adventist Service.
Elder C. H. Edwards of Westerly, R. I., is to conduct the service and preach the sermon at the meeting of the Seventh Day Adventists at their headquarters in the Washburn block, on Valley street, this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Grex vs. Baptists.
The Grex club and the Baptists contested for supremacy in the Intercity Bowling league tournament at the Y. M. C. A. alleys Thursday evening. Following is the score:

Grex Club.	121	119
Harrington	123	121
Higgins	123	121
Parker	144	129
Total, 1202.

Baptists.

Goss	61	80	202
Pendleton	79	89	106
Baldwin	119	119	114
Total, 369.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Stowell Whitehouse.
Mrs. Cora M. wife of Stowell Whitehouse, of North Windham, died at St. Joseph's hospital from pneumonia after a three days' illness, Friday morning, at the age of 31 years. Mrs. Whitehouse was a native of Scotland, the daughter of Orlando Hall and Catherine Abbott Hall. She is survived by her husband and two children.
